Presiding Judge of the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands, the Honorable Harold W.L. Willocks, is pleased to announce to the members of the Virgin Islands Bar Association and the general public, the appointment of Ms. Tamara Charles to the position of Clerk of the Superior Court. Ms. Charles was sworn in at 10 am this morning at the Superior Court in the District of St. Croix, by the Honorable Harold W. L. Willocks, Presiding Judge of the Superior court.

Ms. Charles ascends to the position of Clerk of the Superior Court with more than 20 years of service within the Office of the Clerk of the Court. During her tenure, she served as a Judicial Assistant, a Court Clerk Supervisor and has been the Chief Deputy Clerk in the District of St. Croix for the past ten years. Additionally, she has also been assigned to several projects, including but not limited to, service as the Delay Reduction Coordinator under then Presiding Judge Maria M. Cabret; Project Manager for the Case Management Project under then Presiding Judge Darryl Dean Donohue, Sr.; and is currently the Subject Matter Lead collaborating with the Judicial Branch Administrative Office on the implementation of the much-anticipated new Case Management System which is scheduled to come on line the next few weeks.

Throughout her years of service, Ms. Charles has demonstrated a very high level of commitment and dedication to the Superior Court, and she is well regarded as a consummate professional and leader, who has consistently made strides towards the improvement of service and efficiency within the Clerk’s Office.

Ms. Charles succeeds Ms. Estrella H. George, who retired as Clerk of the Superior Court effective January 31, 2020.
